1. (Futurism) FOLCORE FUTURISTA, La Folcore Futurista-Lanciata da A. Rognoni - G. Soggetti-Liriche - Parole in libertà - Sintesi teatrali (Pavia 1917-Pavia 1917), La Folcore Futurista - Gennaio - Febbraio 1917 [nn. 1-2, all published], Pavia, 1917 (January-February), 2 issues 24,5x17 cm., 16-16 unnumbered pp. Two issue only of this magazine were published: 1) January 1917: texts by R. Chiti, A. Mazza, A. Rognoni. "Parolibere" plates and free words by G. Jannelli, L. Nicastro, A. Pavesi, A. Rognoni, G. Soggetti. "Sintesi teatrali" (theatrical synthesis) by Cerati, F.T. Marinetti, A. Rognoni, G. Soggetti; 2) February 1917: "parolibere" (free words) compositions by P. Buzzi, G. Cantarelli, G. Ferrante, L. Folgore, A. Mazza, F. Meriano, A. Pavesi, A. Rognoni, G. Soggetti. "Sintesi teatrali" by Cerati, I. Fossati, N. Morpurgo, A. Rognoni, G. Soggetti, G. Steiner. Other texts and poems by F. Cangiullo. M. Dassy, R. Gazzaniga, M. Ginanni, A. Mazza, A. Rognoni "La voluttà dello spasimo". [Bibliography: Salaris 2012: pp. 250-255]. € 7.000

"Rognoni e Soggetti ci comunicarono la loro decisione di pubblicare una rivista "La Folcore Futurista". Cangiullo da Napoli aveva assicurato la sua collaborazione. Buzzi mi assicurò la sua in occasione di uno dei nostri incontri nel suo ufficio austero a Palazzo Isimbardi (se non mi sbaglio si chiama così). Cerati Dassy ed io fornivamo liriche, sintesi teatrali futuriste e parole in libertà. Il primo numero fu da noi distribuito nelle edicole. Non ci facemmo illusioni sul successo commerciale di questa impresa che si spense dopo la pubblicazione del secondo numero. Ma nella storia futurista "La Folcore Futurista" ha rappresentato e rappresenta ancor oggi qualcosa che va oltre il semplice significato di un'affermazione." (Nelson Morpurgo, from the unpublished manuscript "I miei amici futuristi", pp. 4-5).

2. (Dada) DADA ALMANACH, Dada Almanach im Auftrag des Zentralamts der deutschen Dada-Bewegung. Herausgegeben von Richard Huelsenbeck. Huidobro, W. Mehring, F. Picabia, Ribemont-Dessaignes, Maria d'Arezzo, A. Sesqui, P. Soupault, T. Tzara. With a reproduction of the telegram sent from Huelsenbeck, Baader and Grosz to D'Annunzio: First edition. [Bibliography: Dachy 1989: pag. 111]. € 1.900

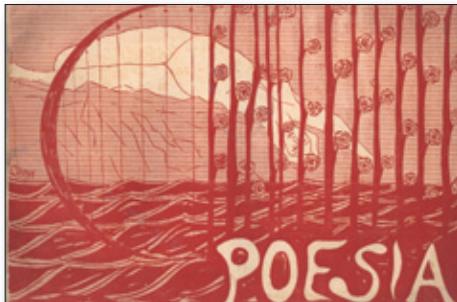

"Dada-Telegramm. Anlässlich der Eroberung Fiumes durch Gabriele d'Annuncio hat der Club Dada an den Corriere della sera folgendes Telegramm gesandt: Ill.mo Signore Gabriele d'Annunzio - Corriere della sera, Milano. Wenn Allierte protestieren, bitten Club Dada, Berlin, anrufen. Eroberung dadaistische Grosstat für deren Anerkennung mit allen Mitteln eintreten. L'atlante mondiale dadaistico DADAKO (Editore Kurt Wolff, Leipzig) riconosce Fiume già come città italiana. Al 15, 333. Club Dada." (pp. 108-109).

3. (Spanish avant-gardes - Futurism) JUNOY Josep Maria (Barcelona 1887 - 1955), Poemes & Cal.ligrams amb una carta-prefaci de Guillaume Apollinaire, Barcelona, Libreria Nacional Catalana, 1920, 26x22 cm., paperback, (26) pp. Collection of poems and calligrams. Only issue of 150 numbered copies. Browned, but a good copy. First edition. [Bibliography: Bonet 1995: pag. 355; Godoli 2001: pag. 1.102]. € 4.500

"(...) Josep Maria Junoy, una delle figure più squisite della prima avanguardia catalana, Junoy è poeta, critico d'arte e disegnatore, artista che si muove tra le suggestioni del cubismo (è appassionato di Apollinaire) e delle parole in libertà (...). Il 6 ottobre 1917 Junoy pubblica nella rivista "Iberia" "Guynemer", un calligramma dedicato al pilota eroe francese appena scomparso, che verrà ristampato nel 1920 nel libro Poemes i Cal.ligrams, con il titolo definitivo Oda a Guynemer. Il testo viene composto alla maniera di Apollinaire, ma redatto utilizzando le parole in libertà marinettiane." (Godoli).

7. (Finnish avant-gardes - Futurism) HELLAAKOSKI Aaro (Oulu, Finland 1893 - 1952), Jääpeili. Runoja, Helsingissä, Kustannusosakeyhtiö Otava, 1928, 19,2x12,7 cm., paperback, 64-[4] pp., illustrated cover depicting an abstract/geometric drawing in black and silver. Collection of poems by the Finnish modernist poet Aaro Hellaakoski, containing examples of visual poetry inspired by futurism and several typographical experiments, where different types in different size are employed, leaving large white spaces on the page. Cover and layout by Topi Vikstedt. Unspecified print run. Uncut copy. First edition. € 2.000

8. (Futurism) MARINETTI Filippo Tommaso [Filippo Achille Emilio Marinetti] (Alexandria 1876 - Bellagio 1944), Santopalato. Taverna Futurista Santopalato, Via Vanchiglia 2 - Torino. Inaugurata da S.E. Marinetti, decorata da Diulgheroff e Fillia. Realizzazione della cucina Futurista italiana. Ambienti di artisti novatori. Proprietari: Giachino e Bosio, Torino, [printer: Anonima Roto-Stampa - Torino], 1931 [no date but March 1931], 18,3x13,5 cm., original binding (two sheets of tin), 16 unnumbered pp., 1 b/w photomontage on title page and 6 advertising illustrations by Nicola Diulgheroff. Including the manifesto of futurist cooking by Marinetti "Cucina futurista" and the menu "Lista del primo pranzo futurista" (list of the first futurist lunch) with dishes invented by Fillia, Saladin, Diulgheroff, Prampolini, Mino Rosso. Two issues were published: one paperback with black title on white background (12 pp.) and one with a tin binding (16 pp.). Published on the occasion of the opening of the Taverna Santopalato in Turin, on the evening of 8 March 1931. Stamp of F.T. Marinetti's archive on inner page. First edition [Bibliography: Salaris 1992: pp. 214 ce 216; Evangelisti 1986: pag. 142]. € 3.000

9. (Japanese avant-gardes - Futurism) RENKICHI Hirato (1894 - 1922), Hirato Renkichi shishu [Poems by Hirato Renkichi], no place [Tokyo], Kanbara Tai, 1931, 18,3x12,3, paperback, [4]-193-[1]-6-[8] pp., abstract line drawing on cover, 2 plates (author's photographic portrait and Manifesto of the Japanese futurist movement, printed in blue). Hirato Renkichi became a member of the Association of Futurist Art in October 1921 and he participated to the second exhibition organised by the Tokyo Association of Futurist Art. In Japanese history of literature it is commonly accepted that the first public futurist event took place in December 1921, when Hirato Renkichi, during a staging at the Hibiya Park in Central Tokyo, threw fragments of the manifesto "Nihon Mirai-ha Sengen Undo/ Mouvement Futuriste Japonais". The volume, posthumously published, includes a collection of poems with several examples of "words in freedom" in Japanese, mixed with letters and words printed in Western types. Spine and cover edges with small losses skilfully restored. First edition. [Bibliography: AA.VV., Japon des avant-gardes 1910/1970, Paris, Centre Georges Pompidou, 1986: pp. 146]. € 3.000

10. (Uruguayan avant-gardes - Ultraism) AA.VV., Aliverti liquida. Primer libro neosensible de letras atenienses: apto para señoritas, Montevideo, no publisher, 1932, 14x19,5 cm., paperback, [64] pp; typographical 2 colours composition of title on front cover. The authors belonged to a club of variety show artists, connected with the basketball society Club Atlético Atenas, one of the most famous in the Uruguayan championship of the 20's. The title was given by chance during a meeting of Club Atenas and was inspired by a radio advertising "Aliverti liquida" ("Aliverti sell off"; Aliverti was a shop in Montevideo). Initially intended as a mocking and burlesque collection of calligrams and "paroliberi" (free words) poems on futurism, it resulted in a true futurist work, containing daring and violent poetry. Authors of the volumes were Paolo Fontaina, renown for his coreographies, Edmundo Bianchi, Edmundo Bianchi, editor of a French poetry anthology and author of the play "El hombre absurdo", Guillermo Francisco Ghio, Juan Copete and others, under several pseudonyms. First edition. [Bibliography: Vanguardia aplicada 2012: pag. 237]. € 3.500

Alle guten Schriffformen wachsen aus einer erlebten Vergangenheit in eine lebendige Gegenwart hinein. So offenbaren sich auch in der neuen bayer-Type deutlich die Beständigkeit und der Wandel. Sie ist eine Antiqua von klassischer Haltung, jedoch was sie von allen anderen Schriften ihrer Gattung sichtbar unterscheidet, ist ihr entschiedener Wille zur Gegenwart

11. (Typography) BAYER Herbert (Haag, Salzburg 1900 - Montecito, California 1985), Bayer Type, Berlin, H.Berthold Ag., 1933, 20,5x20,5 cm., paperback, (8) pp., cover and layout by Herbert Bayer. Specimen from the foundry Bertoldo, carried out for "Bayer Type". First edition. [Bibliography: Cohen 1984: pp. 215-217]. € 2.200

"In 1933, after Bayer had established himself in Berlin, he designed for the H. Berthold type foundry company a successful face known simply as Bayer-type, which more modestly than universal type based on a simplified version of a classical serif Antiqua. Although universal type was reminded the ideal typeface, Bayer always lived in the real world, and if the real world preferred a serif face, better that it should employ one that had been reperceived and drawn anew. The result was Bayer-type, a constructed alphabet in light, bold, and extra-bold weights that was well received and widely used throughout the 1930s in Germany and Scandinavia." (Cohen).

manifesto futurista sulla cravatta italiana

Rivivere la storia italiana nei vostri modelli significa compiere all'indietro salvo ed alla impostazione già più impegnativa dell'antico. L'angusto lavorare della nostra cravatta più grossa, più sciolta, per uscire di tutti i propri paesaggi possibili e finiti.

Il grande inventore P. T. Barnum ha lasciato scrivere una volta il segreto delle mode: magnifiche coste di capelli soltanto mostrano d'essere scritte.

Il grande scrittore RENATO DI BOSSO e il poeta-commediografo IGNAZIO SCURTO ed il quarto di sinistra i con la collaborazione del pittore ALBINO SIVIERO e del poeta QUIRINO SACCHETTI (il primo e il terzo da sinistra) hanno dato in molte città dimostrazione pratica della resistenza praticità lucentezza dell'anticravatta d'alluminio.

Il pittore-sculptore Renato Di Bosso ed il poeta-commediografo Ignazio Scurto ed il quarto di sinistra i con la collaborazione del pittore Albino Siviero e del poeta Quirino Sacchetti (il primo e il terzo da sinistra) hanno dato in molte città dimostrazione pratica della resistenza praticità lucentezza dell'anticravatta d'alluminio.

Il carattere di un uomo si rivela rispetto alla cravatta che porta. Oggi, divina epoca motoristica dinamica, il carattere di un uomo non deve apparire da un nodo e da un pezzetto di stoffa, ma dalla lucentezza e dalla purezza del metallo.

Perciò inviamo, tutte gli italiani credenti a Verizzano di non credere a sé stesse la cravatta futurista facente da oggi il 27 marzo 1933 in Verona.

La cravatta futurista, ANTICRAVATTA IN METALLO LUCENTISSIMO LUCENTE DURATURO, dovuta in ciò pure manifesta forza intelligente, ardore e resistenza d'ingegneria ed estetica.

L'anticravatta non ha nodi:

- in tali con evidenziate articolazioni;
- all'interno spesso con molti disegni antiveloce antigie-

niche antiottimistiche! Regalatele ai vostri bambini perché le attacchino alle code dei gatti o dei cani, unico posto dove non siano ridicole! (...) Il carattere di un uomo si rivela traverso la cravatta che porta. Oggi, divina epoca motoristica dinamica simultanista, il carattere di un uomo non deve apparire da un nodo e da un pezzetto di stoffa, ma dalla lucentezza e dalla purezza del metallo. (...) I metalli usati devono avere uno spessore da due a quattro decimi di mm. e quindi un peso corrispondente minimo, mentre il nodo deve essere completamente abolito. La lunghezza è di pochi centimetri. La dimostrazione pratica di applicazione che abbiamo data in Verona ci fa presagire che l'anticravatta sostituirà tra breve (...) l'antiliricità del panno, delle sete e delle tele. L'anticravatta, sostenuta da un leggero collare elastico, riflette tutto il sole e l'azzurro cui noi italiani siamo ricchissimi e leva la nota malinconica e pessimista dal petto dei nostri uomini. Sono ridicoli quei giovinetti e quei ragazzi antiveloce come diplomatici, Mamme, regolate ai vostri figli una futuristica universale felicità che sparisca loro il peso ed offusca, dondola di luce e di moto. Con l'antimotore, infatti, ogni uomo, ogni donna, ogni ragazzo nostro potrete una volta sola arrivare col buon piede destro già felice.

E' necessario avere bisogno da un'altra dimostrazione di tutto ciò da un nostro veloce servizio e pubblico.

13. (Photography) MEDEIROS José [José Araújo de Medeiros] (Teresina 1921 - 1990), Candomblé, Rio de Janeiro, Edições o Cruzeiro, 1957, 30,5x22 cm, original cloth jacket, [86] pp., colour illustrated jacket by the architect and designer Anisio Medeiros, brother of the author, 65 (double-page) illustrations with b/w photographs. In 1951 the French director Henri-Georges Clouzot published in the magazine Paris Match (n. 151, May) an article illustrated by photographic images, entitled "Les Possédées de Bahia" where the initiation rites of the Candomblé religion were inaccurately and disparagingly described. The editorial board of the Rio de Janeiro magazine "O Cruzeiro" considered this article superficial and unreliable and decided to send the journalist Arlindo Silva and the photographer José Medeiros to the Brazilian region Bahia, in order to prepare a photo reportage on the rites of this Afro-Brazilian religion. The reportage was published in the magazine, giving a totally different anthropological view than the previous article. Some years later a photo- (artist's) book followed, edited by the photographer José Medeiros, with several images previously unpublished, recording the different stages of an initiation ceremony: the loneliness of the initiate, the mothers, the dances, the haircutting, the incisions on the arms, the ritual killing of animals, the elegance and the beauty of the native people. Unspecified print run. First edition. Some small tears on jacket, skilfully repaired. Joined: the issue of Paris Match. € 1.200

14. (Spazialism) FONTANA Lucio (Rosario di Santa Fe, Argentina, 1899 - Varese 1968), Lucio Fontana. Ten Paintings of Venice, New York, Martha Jackson Gallery, [printer: Industrie Grafiche Fratelli Pozzo - Torino], 1961, 27x21 cm., original boards, [24] pp., catalogue/artist's book; holes on both covers, arranged in a circle, as issued, double page b/w on gilt background portrait of Lucio Fontana; 10 pasted plates (5 colour and 5 b/w), depicting artworks by Fontana exhibited in July-September 1961 in Palazzo Grassi in Venice, during the exhibition "Contemplations" and later the same year at the Martha Jackson Gallery in New York (21 November - 16 December). English texts by Lawrence Alloway ("Man on the border") and Lucio Fontana ("Spazialismo"). First Fontana's exhibition in the United States. First edition. € 1.200

15. (Radical architecture) ABRAHAM Raimund (Lienz 1933), House Woolner, no place, no date [but 1965], 21,5x23 cm, original collage, made from a cut out b/w photograph of House Woolner and a printed rectangular b/w leaflet depicting an architectural drawing (possibly a stylised drawing of the same building or a graphic letterhead logo), pasted on white light cardboard. House Woolner was designed by Abraham and partially achieved in Connecticut. Unpublished work, stamped and dated "1965" by Abraham, from the private archive of the architect Adolfo Natalini. Natalini's autograph annotation, giving the name "Abraham", title and a different date "1966". € 1.800

16. (Artists' books - Minimal Art) ANDRE Carl (Quincy, Massachusetts 1935), Carl Andre, Mönchengladbach, Städtisches Museum, 1968, 20,8x16,8 cm, original cardboard box with acetate cover, [12] pp.; artist's book published on the occasion of the exhibition held in the Städtisches Museum in Mönchengladbach, 18 October - 15 December 1968, composed by a cardboard box with acetate cover containing the catalogue of the works exhibited, in the shape of a notebook with loose leaves, and a multiple in white cotton fabric of 3,85 m x 15 cm. where is printed in black a text by Johannes Cladders. Edition of 660 numbered copies. First edition. [Bibliography: Delcroix 2011: pag. 124]. € 1.200

17. (Periodicals) INTERFUNKTIONEN (Köln 1968 - Köln 1975), nn. 1 - 12 (All published), Köln, 1968/1975, 12 volumns, publisher's soft cover; magazine edited by Friedrich Wolfram Heubach (ns. 1-10) and by B. H. D. Buchloh (ns. 11-12). At the beginning it was published as a protest against the conservative editorial board of the magazine Documenta 4, edited by Arnold Bode and almost exclusively aimed to promote the art market. During the seven years of publishing however, the magazine was radically transformed, taking an interest in the newest artistic trends in Europe and U.S., becoming in a few years one of the main publications in the field of contemporary European art and highly contributing to the Europe/U.S. art relationships. Complete run, including the excessively rare first issue. - All issues are illustrated throughout in b&w with photographs, reproductions of works of art and documents. Issues n. 4 to 8 and n. 12 are in German and English. n.1) 1968 (September); 20,4x29,5 cm., publisher's wrappers in two-colours printing 73-[1] numbered leaves (148 pages), some folding, papers of different kind and size. Contributing artists: Wolf Vostell, Von Altoray, Chris Immendorf, Chris Reinecke, Paul Karalus, Werner Schreib, Klauss Staek and others. Original works: pasted colour postcard signed by Von Altoray, pasted colour postcard signed by Vostell, pasted stamp, printed in two colours and stamped with Kp Brehemer's mark, copy of a typed letter signed by Chriss Immendorf, copy of a typed letter signed by Chris Reinecke. Print run of 120 copies. - n. 2) 1968 (December); 20,4x29,5 cm., 91-[11] numbered leaves (204 pages), some on paper of different size and kind; white, gray and black illustrated publisher's wrappers. Contributing artists: Mauricio Kagel, F. W. Heubach, Wolf Vostell, Alfred Feussner, June Paik, Chris Reinecke, Paul Karalus, Joseph Beuys, George Maciunas and others. 22. (Aktionism - Artists' books) BRUS Guenter (Ardning in Steiermark 1938), Unter dem Ladentisch, (Berlin), [Published by the author], [no printer], 1969 [July/December], 29,5x21 cm., original soft cover with two staples, 76 unnumbered pp., artist's book, mimeograph printing, composed by typed texts, handwritten pages, photographic images, documents, newspaper cuttings. Texts by Kaltenbäck, Günther Brus, Herbert Stumpf, Otmar Bauer and others. The book reports the performance "Kunst und Revolution", that took place in Wien, on June 7, 1968. In such performance Günther Brus, Franz Kaltenbäck, Otto Muehl, Peter Weibel and Oswald Wiener carried out every possible provocation, defecating, vomiting, masturbating and self-injuring in front of an audience of about 300 onlookers; at the end naked, bleeding and covered with excrement, they sang, standing on the flag, the Austrian National Anthem. A huge scandal followed and a case was immediately prepared for trial; Brus was threatened with death and moved to Berlin. In 1970 he was sentenced to six months imprisonment. This book is the performance manifesto as well as a document of artistic self-defence. Signed on back cover by the author. Unspecified print run. "The title of this book "Anonyme Skulpturen", speaks of the Becher's enormous success in the art world, where theoretical position and perceived ambition are often more important than the precise nature of the work itself. The word "sculpture" immediately raises expectations above and beyond the documentary photograph. The Becher's initial project of recording industrial building types succeeds both as a document (of sculpture) and as art (as sculpture) in its own right." (Martin Parr - Gerry Badger).

"SCELTA (Un gioco per Due giocatori). Fagiolini verdi". A game for two player, belonging to a series of works on choise. "Questo lavoro fa parte di una serie di lavori sulla scelta. In questa versione erano disponibili per la scelta un certo numero di fagiolini verdi... i tre fagiolini scelti furono disposti su una superficie per essere fotografati. Io scelsi per una ragione qualunque uno dei tre fagiolini. Si fotografò il processo di selezione. Il fagiolino scelto fu messo da parte, gli altri fagiolini scartati. Si aggiunsero due nuovi fagiolini. Venne fatta la scelta seguente e così via. Ogni partecipante rivela strategie sconosciute all'altro giocatore, poichè il processo di selezione continua sino a che tutti i fagiolini sono utilizzati".

36. (Artists' books) ANDRE Carl (Quincy, Massachusetts 1935), Eleven poems, Torino, Sperone Editore, [printer: Tipografia Petrino - Torino], 1974 (April), 30,7x30,7 cm., paperback, pale stains on inner edge of back cover, [24] pp, artist's book, cover illustrated with the title of the 11 poems and 11 b/w plates depicting the original manuscript of each poem. Characteristic of these poems are the lack of punctuation and the letters irregular orientation; the texts are mainly included in a rectangular space, but in some of them the words compose more complex geometrical shapes. Edition of 1.000 copies. First edition [Bibliography: Delcroix 2011: pag. 86 with illustration and pag. 423]. € 1.800

"An observable connection exists between Carl Andre's minimalist sculpture and his poetry. Just as the sculptor famously abandoned welded, relational and vertical sculpture in favor of standardized elements placed on the floor, the poet approaches language as a concrete, complex matter that can be broken down to single units and then reordered in non-hierarchical, non-relational ways. Dismissing punctuation, Andre juxtaposes words, stacks them in columns or places them in patterns, thus creating resonant connections and calling attention to the poem's space: the field of the white page.". 42. (Body Art) ABRAMOVIC Marina (Belgrade 1946), Ritmo 4 - 1974 [Rhytm 4], Padova, Mastrogiacomo Editore, "Performances nel mondo", [no printer], [no date but 1978], 6 posters 49,5x34 cm., each depicting, on 4 b/w photographic images, the artist during his first performance in Italy; the posters differ only in the background colour: black and white, light blue, green, yellow, orange and red. Complete series, printed for the publication of Luciano Inga-Pin's book Performances, Happenings, Actions, Events, Activities, Installations, Padova, Mastrogiacomo Editore, 1978. First edition. € 2.400

The performance "Rhytm 4", of 45 minutes, took place in Milan, in Inga Pin's Galleria del Diagramma, in 1974: "Rhytm 4. Space A. Performance. I slowly approach the air blower, taking air in as much as possible. Just above the opening of the blower I lose consciousness because of the extreme pressure. But this does not interrupt the performance. After falling over sideways the blower continues to change and move my face. Space B. Performance. The video camera is only focused on my face without showing the blower. The public looking at the monitor have the impression of me being under water. The moment I lose consciousness the performance lasts 3 more minutes, during which the public are unaware of my state. In the performance I succeed in using my body in and out of consciousness without any interruption.". (Marina Abramovic).

43. (Arte Povera - Artists' books) KOUNELLIS Jannis (Piraus, Greece 1936), Jannis Kounellis, Mönchengladbach, Städtisches Museum, [printer: H. Schlechtriem - Mönchengladbach], 1978 [May], original cardboard box, 4 loose light cardboard leaves and 1 multiple, artist's name printed in red on beige background above and on one side of the cover; inside an original flammable multiple in cardboard and metal by Jannis Kounellis, and 4 loose leaves with poetry written in 1918 by Aleksander Blok ("Die Skyten"). Edition of 440 copies. Multiple made in occasion of the exhibition held in Mönchengladbach, Städtisches Museum, 11 May - 11 June 1978. First edition. [Bibliography: Lailach 2005: pag. 133; Maffei 2007: pag. 92]. € 1.200

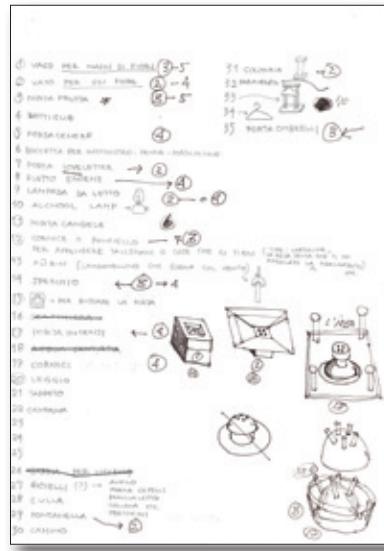

"La scatola/contenitore caratterizza l'intera collana di libri edita dal museo (...) ma il contenuto è lasciato alla completa libertà interpretativa dell'artista. Kounellis sceglie alcuni frammenti poetici di Aleksander Blok tratti da "Die Skythen" e stampati su quattro tavole di cartoncino e vi aggiunge un multiplo realizzato in cartone, ma dall'aspetto greve che probabilmente richiama alcune sue opere in cemento esposte nella mostra che è stata occasione per l'edizione di questo libro.". 44. (Radical Architecture) LA PIETRA Ugo (Bussi sul Tirino, Pescara 1938), Interno/esterno, (Milan), 1979/1980, 29,5x21 cm., original light boards, 48 unnumbered pp. Handwritten title on cover and 24 original drawings in Indian ink and colour pencil by Ugo La Pietra. Stamp "Archivio Ugo La Pietra - Via Guercino 7 - Milano" on verso. Unpublished sketchbook. € 16.000

"Tra i vari discorsi e opere che gli storici hanno catalogato nella corrente denominata "architettura radicale", alcuni progetti realizzati verso la fine degli anni Settanta tentavano di mettere in crisi il cosiddetto stile internazionale anonimo e ripetitivo riproponendo un'architettura in grado di "comunicare". Caricare l'oggetto architettonico di elementi legati alla nostra contemporaneità, senza prendere in prestito elementi formali dalla memoria colta (postmoderno), è una pratica progettuale che ho voluto indicare con una semplice operazione: portare elementi formali dall'interno all'esterno. - La facciata si connota così di luci, decorazioni, oggetti quotidiani in cui ci riconosciamo, elementi ingranditi, ripetuti, realizzati con materiali diversi possono diventare un catalogo inesauribile di manipolazione. L'interno verso l'esterno diventa così, oltre che uno slogan a cui rimandare sinteticamente tutte le mie ricerche tese al superamento della barriera, che ancora esiste, tra spazio privato e spazio pubblico, anche un metodo progettuale per la buona salute di un'architettura che sembra cercare con scarsi risultati nuovi modelli a cui fare riferimento.". Edition of 500 copies. First and only edition. [Bibliography: Italo Tomassoni. Gino de Dominicis. Catalogo ragionato, Milano, Skira, 2011]. € 1.800

"Like all the tales on Gino De Dominicis, this description is too incomplete, perhaps unreliable, somehow wrapped in a aura of mystery. For this reason it is interesting to try to retrace it. In 1998, on the occasion of his last solo exhibit (he will die the following November), at the Mazzoli gallery in Modena, the artist decides to publish his second book. The first one appeared in 1970, published by Sargentini for the exhibition at the Galleria L'Attico in Rome. On the cover, the reproduction of the legendary poster "manifesto mortuario", printed the previous year. Catalogue (not artist's book) very much sought-after and of course not to be found, but well-known and whose mystery is now a little cleared. Thus in 1998, De Dominicis decides to publish a book, but certainly not a catalogue (his works may never be simply reproduced) but an object better defined as "artist's book", itself a kind of vaguely defined publishing work of art. De Dominicis gives to the publisher and the printer strict instructions. In his studio can be found hundreds of Polaroid, shoot by the artist himself or by his assistants, where a glimpse can be caught of his works, his friends, the details of his atelier. In 11 of them the artist, apparently at least, can be distinguished. The painting can be barely seen from afar, while people, all women, are much more prominent. Somebody says that some of the photographs were shoot for the book, anyway 124 images are chosen, together with some other material that will not be employed. The artist defines the biggest size on the page: a square of 2,7 x 2,7 cm, so small to let scarcely discern the subject. Some of them are even cut, almost unreadable, and 9 or 12 of them put on a grid. He orders then a "non offset" printing and he requires a "technicolor" printing. Nobody knows what a technicolor printing can possibly be. The poor printer makes some tests with a typographical technique then in its experimental phase: a digital printing obtained with one of the first printers available. The work is performed in Parma, by a pioneer of the method. De Dominicis choose a "non offset" printing because he desired to obtain colour "bright and sharp", totally unreal. He even delivered to the printer, not the original Polaroid (too well-defined) but their colour photocopies and the colour photocopies of the latter. The reproductions' reproductions, to loose still more quality and detail". (Giorgio Maffei, "Artelibro. Mostra mercato del libro antico e di pregio". Bologna, 2011).
